

BVGA CHARACTER FRAMEWORK

CONFIDENT LEARNERS DEMONSTRATE THE FOLLOWING COMPETENCIES.

They aim high by:

- › exploring ideas in more detail and by always wanting to know more.

They show creative thinking by:

- › being inquisitive, innovative and imaginative.

They show independence by:

- › taking ownership of their learning and applying it in the classroom and beyond.

They show teamwork by:

- › working together and supporting the learning of others.

CONFIDENT COMMUNICATORS DEMONSTRATE THE FOLLOWING COMPETENCIES.

They aim high by:

- › showing self-confidence, liveliness, flair, and evaluating ideas.

They show creative thinking by:

- › exploring new ideas and having different points of view.

They show independence by:

- › participating, having a voice and expressing their opinions in the classroom and beyond.

They show teamwork by:

- › sharing ideas, listening to, and appreciating the views of others.

CONFIDENT FUTURE CITIZENS DEMONSTRATE THE FOLLOWING COMPETENCIES.

They aim high by:

- › showing leadership skills, aspiration and ambition.

They show creative thinking by:

- › problem-solving and making links and connections with the wider world.

They show independence by:

- › actively seeking out new challenges and trying new things.

They show teamwork by:

- › being inclusive and respecting others regardless of their background.

CONFIDENT LEARNERS, CONFIDENT COMMUNICATORS AND CONFIDENT FUTURE CITIZENS DEMONSTRATE THE FOLLOWING ATTRIBUTES:

- › They show compassion by creating an environment where everyone is welcome, supported, and confident about being themselves.
- › They show respect by being open-minded and treating others as they would wish to be treated.
- › They show responsibility through self-discipline and by being well-organised, polite, and well-behaved.
- › They show resilience by being persistent and determined and keeping going when faced with challenges.